

Preliminary program for PRE-FRIPRO application program

Part 1: 12th of February 10:00 – 15:00: Seminar/workshop. Room KE A-259

Section one: Welcome and introduction (10:00 – 11:30)

- Welcome
- Outline of the program
- Introduction talk: “what characterize a good application” (Vibeke Bull)
How to define aim, impact, problem, hypothesis and design.

Lunch (11:30 - 12:30) – with presentation of candidates

Section two: the Norwegian research council’s template and criteria for young research talents. (12:30 – 13:30)

- The research council’s project description template:
  1. Relevance relative to the call for proposals,
    - 2.1. Background and status of knowledge,
    - 2.2. Approaches, hypotheses and choice of method,
    - 2.3. The project plan, project management, organisation and cooperation
- Assessment criteria for the category “young research talents”
- E-application

Coffee brake (13:30 – 13:45)

Section three: workshop – discussion of proposals (13:45-15:00)

Discussion of two proposals already evaluated by the research council.

Part 2: Mid-march: Project presentations

Candidates present their projects. Presentation 5-10 min, discussion 15 min.

Preliminary dates:

11th of March 11:00 - 13:00: Workshop part (TEKNAT/SV candidates)

18th of March 11:00 - 13:00: Workshop part (TEKNAT/SV candidates)

25th of March 11:00 - 13:00: Workshop part (HUM/SV candidates)

Part 3: 16th-17th of April: two day seminar/workshop with Peter Dukes

Focus on the review process. It will also be possible to present and get feedback on the proposal.
Program will be published in the end of January.